The Governor of Mississippi

The Honorable Hugh L. White

Governor Hugh L. White is a true son of Ole Miss. While at the University as a student, he was a member of the Rebel Football squad. Now he is still a staunch supporter of Ole Miss in every phase of the University's educational program. He is a loyal fan of the Ole Miss Rebel football team.

Governor White realizes the need for a well-rounded development of the state, and, as governor, he has endeavored to promote our state in every phase of development—educational, industrial, agricultural, recreational, and political.

To Governor White we owe a deep appreciation for his efforts toward the building of a greater Ole Miss.

J. D. WILLIAMS

Your fellow students have worked diligently and skillfully to assemble in this Ole Miss of 1955 many of the scenes, the situations, the occasions, the descriptions, the quotations, and expositions in such sequence and relation so as to capture the spirit of this year.

The University of Mississippi is part of you now, and we hope that it always serves you well. One of the pleasant ways it can serve you at your will is through this Ole Miss. Look through it from time to time and be interested and amused at the change of perspective, of values, of understanding you note in yourself as you grow older. Observe, too, one element remains constant—the great spirit of achievement, integrity, friendliness, and service that is characteristic of this great institution.

I shall cherish this volume, review it carefully in the years ahead, watch your progress, and recall the fun we have had this year working together. Good health and good fortune to each of you.

This year 1955 marks another progressive year toward a greater Ole Miss. Our University has grown from a single college in 1848 to its present size of seven schools and one college. The College of Liberal Arts, founded in 1848, was the only institution of higher learning until 1854 when the School of Law was established. In 1900, The School of Engineering was founded. Three years later in 1903 The School of Education and The School of Medicine were founded. The School of Pharmacy, founded in 1908, is the only one of its kind in this area. In 1917, The School of Business was founded, and ten years later in 1927 The Graduate School was founded.

This year The Carrier Engineering Building was completed, and in September, 1955, the University of Mississippi's new four year Medical School will begin classes in Jackson.

Truly Ole Miss is a great University with the many fields of higher learning it has to offer its students. Ole Miss is proud of its Deans, and it is with their capable guidance that Ole Miss hopes to reach even higher planes.

Administration

R. MALCOLM GUESS
Dean of Men

ESTELLA HEFLEY

The administration of the University of Mississippi is divided into four main divisions, with the head of each division being responsible directly to Chancellor Williams.

Dr. W. Alton Bryant, Provost of the University, is the head of the Academic Division. It is he who coordinates all of the operations in the Academic Division. Dean L. L. Love is the Dean of the Division of Student Personnel. He is responsible for the operation of all student personnel offices and functions. The office of the Financial Secretary is headed by Mr. W. C. Trotter, Financial Secretary. Mr. Trotter has the responsibility of collecting and disbursing all University funds. Mr. Carroll W. North, Comptroller of the University, has the responsibility of the other financial matters and records of the University.

Other members of the University of Mississippi administration are Estella Hefley, Dean of Women; R. Malcolm Guess, Dean of Men; Robert Ellis, Registrar; J. S. Hartin, Director of Libraries; Fred Ford, Director of Personnel; Marvin Black, Director of Public Relations; V. B. Harrison, Student Health Director; William S. The Legislative Council

The Legislative Council is one of the most important divisions of the University of Mississippi's student administration. This council is composed of the four A.S.B. officers, the President of each of the eight schools in the University, the editor of the "Mississipp-pian," and the President of W.S.G.A. One of the main functions of the council is to serve as an advisory board to the A.S.B. President. The Legislative Council points its efforts toward further student control of campus affairs and strengthening of the A.S.B. government.

SITTING: Brad Dye, Ernest Duff, Wallace Allred, Richard Ball. STANDING: George McNeil, Jimmy Childs.

THE SENATE OFFICERS

The Campus Senate is another major division of our student government. Formed six years ago under the A.S.B. Constitution, it has since developed into a powerful representative of the Ole Miss student body.

The Senate's membership is composed of one member from each section of each dormitory, each fraternity and sorority house, each district in the Veterans Village, two members from Oxford resident students, and a representative from the Chancellor's office and from the Dean's office of each School.

With its representative membership, the Senate controls all matters which are delegated to the student body by the Administration, and sets the policy for all student body activities in order that they may be conducted for the best interest of the student body as a whole.

The Student Judicial Council consists of five students, four of whom are appointed by the A.S.B. President and one elected by the students. The council has the jurisdiction to hear and decide all matters relative to the interpretations of the Constitution of the A.S.B. and any other laws passed by the Campus Senate. The council also serves in a disciplinary capacity.

The Women's Student Government, which is composed of every woman student on the campus, is headed by an Executive Council of four officers elected by popular vote at the beginning of the year.

Each dormitory elects a House Council composed of a president, a secretary, and two representatives from each floor. The duties of these House Councils are to promote high social standards and to promote the observance of all University regulations.

The Legislative Council, composed of the dormitory presidents and secretaries, is responsible for rules and regulations.

The Ole Miss Association is affiliated with the Mississippi Association of Student Governments for Women and also the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Women's Student Governments.

From start to finish, it was hell. Work began back in August way up in Nashville. Between rounds of golf, the layouts were finally completed.

The next step was simple; filling the 300-odd pages with pictures and copy. Of course, there was nothing to it, just begging people to have their pictures made, making appointments to have group shots taken, trips to Tupelo with the beauties (What's wrong with that?), and getting all of the copy typed.

Thanks goes to Kay Profflet, Peggy Neely, and Mary Virginia McInnis for their undying efforts in getting the class section together. Bouquets of dandelions go to Mary Ann Murphree and Joan Hulett for their last minute rush job on the final copy.

Helping the po' Editor, Banks Shepherd, in his mad rush for pictures was Bob "Two Shot" Robinson. The three hoods usually found loaded down with cameras and flash bulbs were T-Bone Williams, Steve Butler, and Bill Davis running out to help in photographing the favorites.

Laden with the task of writing the copy on the Sororities were Jamie Stillions and Sylvia Smith. Young Steve Butler spent many long hours compiling the sports section.

Over on the business side were Phil McCarty, the Business Manager, and his assistant Rufus Dalton. Together with their general flunkies Caleb Dortch, Frank Hunger, and Hazel McCain they kept the OLE MISS on its feet financially.

And finally, believe it or not, sometime early in March, we were through, and here it is. We hope that you enjoy thumbing through the book in the years to come and remembering all of the events that are captured in the 1955 OLE MISS.

You can't put that in the paper

The head liners at work?

It's Friday Afternoon. The ancient presses at the Oxford Eagle roll and another edition of the Mississippian goes to press, climaxing a week's work that began the Sunday before with a meeting of the editors. On Monday, assignments were given out. Tuesday, the editorial page was wrapped up, Wednesday night was the big one, and the front page was sculptured on Thursday. By late Friday the paper had been circulated over the campus, and the staff had two days of rest before it was time to begin another edition. For some 44 years, the "Rebel's weekly newspaper" has been put out in this fashion.

This year, Jimmy Autry edited "Lafayette County's best college paper," Managing Editor John Way cracked the whip and kept the staff in line. Ramond "Barrymore" Burgin Straight-Scooped the campus as Associate Editor the first semester before resigning to answer the call of the theater, and he was succeeded by world traveler Mary Booth.

News Editor Jean Guyton covered the fraternity and sorority orgies and other society news, and News Editor George McNeil "handled" the reporters. Betty Garner was first semester assistant news editor, and Ann "Panny" Flautt took the assistance the spring semester. Other members of the news staff included Walter Hurt, Jan Holmes, Martha Kimbrough, Jean Nail, Jamie Stillions, Josephine Zeller, Neil Gregory, Bonita Appleton, Ary Phillips, Wally Sherwood, and Mary Booth.

Between hunting trips, Dick Hooker was Sports Editor, and he was assisted by Tony Carbonar, who wrote poetry in his spare time. Bill Smith, Earl Solomom, Bill Shellhammer, and Bob George also worked on the sports staff.

Howell Boyd was drama reporter, and Sylvia Guyton wrote features. Carl Reid took the "campus cuties" and other less enjoyable pictures.

Hal Spragins was chief embezzler, and he was ably assisted by Bob Quinnelly. Bob Pardue was advertising Manager the first semester, and Wally Sherwood handled the ads the second semester.

Marlin Ryland was in charge of distributing the paper. Other members of the business staff included Charles Scott, Ray Mikell, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Ray, George Jackson, and Tom Hines.

The Mississippian is circulated over the campus, the state, to other colleges and to any one else that the business staff can con into buying a subscription.

Managing Editor.

The A.S.B. Dance Committee has charge of all of the student sponsored dances on the campus. Each year the Committee brings some of the top name bands in the nation to the campus.

The Chairman of the Dance Committee is appointed by the A.S.B. President, who in turn selects the members of his committee. The selections for both the Dance and Floor Committees are subject to final approval by the A.S.B. President.

Starting the year off, Sauter-Finnegan played for a concert. The Red Tops played for the dance after the State game on November 27. The Christmas Dance brought Buddy Morrow to the campus. Louis Armstrong gave a concert on March 2. It was through the hard work of Don Samuels and his Committee that the Ole Miss students were able to have these top name bands on the campus.

The Ole Miss Coach

This year Head Coach John Vaught has experienced one of his best years at the University. During this, his eighth season with the Rebs, he won nine and lost only one.

Line Coach Buster Poole was an alltime Rebel athletic great here in 1934-1937. Leaving here he joined the professional ranks to become rated by some as the best wingman to hit the bigtime. Coach Poole returned to Ole Miss in 1947 to become the line coach.

Line Coach Bruiser Kinard, another of the former Rebs, also made history in the pro ranks. Last year he was named to the Hall of Fame as a charter member. In 1948, he returned to the campus to become line coach for the Rebels.

Backfield Coach Junie Hovius, All SEC back in 1943, was rated then as one of the cleverest, smartest and most versatile backs the South has seen. He joined the Rebel forces in 1946. Coach Hovius is also the golf coach.

Backfield Coach John Cain is a product of the University of Alabama. An All-American in 1933, he played a part in the defeat of Washington State in the Rose Bowl in 1930. Coach Cain was made a member of the staff in 1947.

Coach Wobble Davidson is a native of Ole Miss. After serving his uncle from 1942-45, he again returned to the Ole Miss gridiron as Freshman and "B" team coach in 1951. His charges remain unbeaten since the opener of the season that year, with a record of 10-1-1.

Coach Swayze is the contact man for Ole Miss. A former star with the Rebel nine, he is now also serving in the capacity of baseball coach. Coach Swayze joined the staff in 1949 and took over as baseball coach in 1951.

Doc Knight, the athletic trainer, is the man who keeps the Rebel charges in working condition. It is he who is famous for keeping the boys in the right frame of mind by his writings posted on the locker doors. Doc Knight came to Ole Miss in 1947.

Coach Country Graham, the greatest of all basketball stars at Ole Miss, serves as assistant Freshman Coach. Coach Graham is also the Basketball Coach.

Ed Stone, although not a member of the coaching staff proper has been beneficial in the success of the Rebel athletic campaigns. He is one of the ones who may have to miss seeing the Rebs in action in order to watch the next weeks foes in action. Mr. Stone's position as scout is a vital part of the success of our teams.

The purpose of the M Club is to promote excellence in the athletic ability and to promote the general welfare of athletics on the Ole Miss campus.

Initiation into the M Club is always held in high regard by the present and incoming members. The new members have one consolation, and that is that they will have their day the next year.

Each year the M Club sponsors the M Club dance held sometime during the football season and also their annual M Club Day. Toward the end of the year the members have one big final party. Last year it was held at Sardis Dam, and from all reports it was one for the books.

The Rebels of Ole Miss, ranked by many top sports writers as the No. 1 team in the nation, tackled the much improved North Texas State Eagles on the night of September 17 on the turf of Crump Stadium. The result was a rousing 35 to 12 victory for the Rebels.

Allen (Red) Muirhead, the Canton flash, and quarterback Houston Patton sparked the Rebels attack. Muirhead, who as a freshman in 1951 had lead the team in rushing but had never been quite the same since, put on a fine exhibition of running with his longest run being a 49 yard run through the entire Texas defense. Patton, who was playing his second year of varsity ball, completed six consecutive passes in the first two periods and then sat out most of the second half, while junior Eagle Day and sophomore John Wallace Blalack guided the team.

Ole Miss scored in the first two minutes of play after recovering an opponent's fumble on their 40 yard line. Patton passed 17 yards to end Dave Dickerson, and Muirhead carried it over from the one.

The Eagles scored on a four yard plunge by Dean Renfro after they had recovered a fumble. Shortly after the kickoff Muirhead got off his sizzling 49 yard run around his own left end.

Bob (Slick) McCool, the plunging fullback, scored the third Rebel TD on a plunge from the one yard line. This came after a 72 yard sustained drive, which was sparkled by the running of McCool and Muirhead and the passes from Patton to his ends Harris and Dickerson.

After the half time ceremonies the Rebels came back with their reserves and scored twice more. Billy Kinard scored from the two yard line after ripping off a beautiful 33 yard run in the drive. Also helping in the drive were two passes from Day to halfback Earl Blair. The last score was set up by a recovery of an Eagle fumble by All-American tackle Rex Reed Boggan. The scoring drive covered 42 yards, with Muirhead scoring his third touchdown from the one yard line after an 18 yard run by McCool and a pass from Day to Muirhead which covered 12 yards.

Halfback Tommy Runnels of the visitors turned in the longest run of the night with a scoring dash in the last period covering 64 yards.

The Rebels played their second game against the boys from the Blue Grass country, the Kentucky Wildcats, and after a shaky start they finally came out on top by the count of 28 to 9. This game was played under lights at Crump Stadium.

Quarterback Eagle Day and backs Slick McCool and Billy Kinard were the offensive stars of the game with Boggan, Weiss, and Alliston plugging the gaps in the line. Day, who had taken a back seat to quarterback Houston Patton in the first game, completed 4 passes out of 7 attempts for a total of 111 yards.

The Wildcats scored first as Delmar Hughes kicked a field goal from the 15 yard line after an interception of a Rebel pass had set up the kick.

In the second quarter Day came in the game to replace Patton at quarterback and filled the air with aials. On one of the best catches of the year, Day threw a 35 yard pass to halfback Jimmy Patton to put the ball on the Wildcat's 21. After a 15 yard penalty, Day passed 35 yards to Kinard on the 3 yard line. Then, on the next play, Kinard plunged over for the score with Jimmy Patton adding the extra point. The Rebels also added a safety before halftime, when Mitchell fumbled a Day punt in his end zone and a Rebel invader tackled him.

After Boggan recovered a Wildcat fumble on the Rebel 22, they marched 78 yards on the ground to their second score. Kinard and McCool carried the ball on short plunges with the longest run being a Kinard run of 11 yards to the Kentucky 7 yard line. He scored four plays later on a line plunge.

In the fourth quarter the Rebels scored again on a two yard plunge by speedy Earl Blair. The score was set up after Blair ran a punt back 12 yards to the 'Cat 27. After being penalized 35 yards, a run by Muirhead of 17 yards and a pass from Day to Blair for 22 yards put the ball on the three, where McCool drove to the two and Blair took it over.

Late in the game Red Muirhead electrified the crowd with a 70 yard punt return to the Wildcat one foot line. He scored on the next play for the final Ole Miss touchdown.

With the Rebel third team in the game the Wildcat's Bob Hardy completed a pass to the Rebel two, and two plays later Hardy passed to Howard Schnellenberger for their lone score.

The Rebels played their third night game in the northern city of Philadelphia, and their opponents were Villanova. Again our hometown boys were victorious, as they put on one of the best passing performances ever seen in the city and won by a tremendous 52 to 0 score.

The three quarterbacks Day, Patton, and Blalack threw 17 passes and completed 10 for an amazing 321 yards and five touchdowns. Their favorite target was Earl Blair, who caught 3 passes for 119 yards. Day was the most effective passer as he completed 6 passes out of 8 attempts for 186 yards and three scores.

Villanova started off the game as if they were going to make a real game out of it, as they recovered a Rebel fumble and marched 40 yards to their two yard line. There the Rebel's stout defense took charge and held their opponents. After the Rebels moved the ball to the 21 on running plays, Houston Patton fired a 79 yard pass to end Dave Dickerson for a score. Dickerson's part covered more than 50 yards.

Early in the second quarter Red Muirhead ran 19 yards for a score to end a drive that started from the Villanova 37. The third score came on Eagle Day's 25 yard end run after Earl Blair had returned a punt for 17 yards. Two minutes later Day found Blair in the open on the Villanova 31 yard line and he raced all the way for the score. The play covered 68 yards from the line of scrimmage. The final score of the first half came on a six yard pass from Day to end Ace Drewry on the opponent's seven and he, in turn, lateralled to Billy Kinard who raced for the score.

Coach Vaught used his reserves throughout the second half. End Bobby Fisher blocked a Villanova punt in the third quarter and the Rebs covered the ball on the opponents 29. Seven plays later third team halfback John Barber scampered over from the 3. The final two scores came on a Day to Muirhead pass covering 22 yards and a 32 yard pass play from John Blalack to back Pepper Thomas.

Like Kentucky, Villanova netted but 18 yards rushing to continue to be the best defensive team in the nation. This occasion was an historic event for Ole Miss, since the 95,607 spectators paid to watch the scrape, and this was the largest crowd ever to watch a game in which Ole Miss participated.

Coach Vaught's mighty Rebels spoiled the Vanderbilt homecoming in Nashville by dropping the Commodores by the score of 22 to 7.

Red Muirhead, who had sparked the Rebels through the first three games, put on his best show of the year by gaining exactly half of the Rebel's 234 yards rushing. Also sparking the team were the two quarterbacks, Day and Patton. They threw 19 passes and completed 11 for a total of 201 yards and two scores.

Both teams threatened early in the game with the Rebels fumbling twice on the Vandy one yard line. Finally late in the first quarter Eagle Day passed to Earl Blair on the Commodore 35 yard line, and he was off on a touchdown jaunt that covered 69 yards. Day added the extra point and the score at the end of the first period was 7-0.

Vandy evened the score late in the second quarter, when quarterback Jim Looney threw a long pass to Tommy Harkins who was shoved out of bounds on the Rebel four yard line. They scored three plays later and added the extra point. The Rebels looked as if they were going to score again before halftime but their 86 yard march was ended on the one yard line as the whistle sounded ending the half.

Midway in the third quarter, Muirhead brought the crowd to their feet with a 61 yard TD run that was aided by a key block by tackle Dick Weiss at the 40. He cut off left tackle going wide, tiptoed down the sidelines, headed for the center and was long gone.

In the final stanza Houston Patton and Slick McCool paved the way on running plays for a 36 yard pass play from Houston Patton to Jimmy Patton to count for the final Rebel touchdown. Jimmy Patton added the extra point.

Sophomore end Leon Harbin tackled Donald Orr in the Vandy end zone for a safety to bring the final score to 22-7. This play happened with less than a minute to go.

The Rebels ran their victory string to five games with a Homecoming victory over the Green Waves of Tulane in Hemingway Stadium. The score of 34 to 7 was the second most decisive victory which dated back to 1893.

In the first quarter Jimmy Patton, who scored 26 points in the last year's Tulane game, came back again to give the Greenies trouble. He circled left end for 23 yards and also caught a 16 yard pass from Houston Patton to put the ball on the opponents' 3 yard line. Paige Cothren scored from there and Jimmy added the extra point. Also in the period Jimmy Patton, Paige Cothren, Billy Kinard alternated to move the ball 41 yards in seven plays to the Tulane 13 where Red Muirhead, part of a fresh team, took over and scored. Day added the point.

In the second quarter the Rebels moved the ball again toward the Greenies goal, but when Eagle Day passed to a Rebel receiver on the 9-yard line Fred Wilcox of Tulane grabbed the ball out of the sky and raced 91 yards for the only score for the visitors. It looked as if the Rebels had Wilcox stopped on the midfield stripe, but he got good blocking and put on a good exhibition of dodging; and it was good for 6 points for the second team quarterback.

Shortly after the kickoff the Rebels were back on the rampage again. John Blalack's 20 yard run and one for 15 yards by Jimmy Patton put the ball on the Green Wave three yard line. From here fullback Slick McCool took over. Thereafter Jimmy Patton missed his first extra point of the year after kicking 10 consecutive points.

After a very impressive half time ceremony, the Rebels, with Eagle Day directing the team, marched 73 yards for their fourth score. After crossing into enemy territory Day bootlegged the ball 18 yards and then passed to Muirhead for gains of nine and 18 yards to put the ball on the three yard line. Day sneaked over from there for the score. Day also added the extra point.

The final score for the Rebels came as Blalack threw an 18 yards pass to Leon Harbin on the Tulane 11. Barber carried it down to the three and Cothren took it across for the score. Day kicked the point to end the scoring.

Coach John Vaught took his undefeated Rebels to the city of Little Rock to invade the Razorbacks of Arkansas. The Rebels, even though on top in the statistics column, came out on the short end of the score as it ended 6 to 0 in favor of the opponent. Going into this game Ole Miss was rated in fifth place in the nation and also the undefeated Arkansas team was in seventh place. This game was rated the top game of the week in the nation.

Both teams threatened but never could get across the goal line until the waning moments of the game when tailback Buddy Benson wheeled wide to the left from his own 34, stepped back and let fly with a wobbly pass to blocking Preston Carpenter who took the ball just behind Houston Patton and Billy Kinard at the Rebels 35 and raced for the touchdown that broke the hearts of the Rebel fans who had traveled all the way to Little Rock to see their team win. This pass completion by Benson was only the second pass completion of the afternoon.

Ole Miss had more first downs than the Porkers with 12 to their 8. They traveled to the Hog 6 in the opening period, to the 17 in the second, then inside the 20 again in the third. Arkansas pushed a first period penetration to the Rebel 29, had another chance after recovery of a fumble deep in the Ole Miss territory, but couldn't go; then they used a pass interception as the lever to transfer from the Reb 40 to the 16, where the Hogs were jammed early in the fourth. This was the story until Benson let fly with his winning pass. Muirhead brought the hopes of the Rebels alive when late in the game, he raced a kickoff back 35 yards but the Rebels fumbled and the Hogs were the victors. This victory was the first since 1947 for Arkansas.

Ole Miss journeyed to Baton Rouge for a tangle with the Tigers of L.S.U. and after a shaky start defeated the Bayou Bengals by the score of 21 to 6. This win moved the Rebels back into the top ten teams in the nation and placed them in the ninth spot.

Ole Miss and L.S.U. battled on even terms in the first quarter, and the score at the end of the period was 0-0.

Midway in the second period, the Rebels hit the scoreboard on a display of defensive playing. Trapped by a host of charging linemen, L.S.U. quarter Al Doggett attempted to pass out of trouble from his 21. Instead, when hit, he bounced the ball off the helmet of a Reb defender into the hands of tackle "Foots" Yelverton, who raced 12 yards for the score.

In the third period Jimmy Patton put the finishing touches to a 63 yard drive with a nine yard end run on the pitchout from Eagle Day. Patton got a corner block from Red Muirhead to put him in pay dirt. Day, who was the top passer in the S. E. C. at this time, set the scoring with a 25 yard pass to his favorite target Earl Blair. Blair caught four of the five completions from Day for 113 yards of the total 119 yards. This yardage on pass receiving gave him a total of 408 yards on 14 pass catches while Auhurn's Jim Pyburn was second with 22 catches for 365 yards.

The final Rebel score was set up by Jimmy Patton when he grabbed a Doggett pass on the Tiger 40 and raced down to the 11 on a dash down the sidelines. Three plays later Houston Patton slipped over from the two. Jimmy Patton booted all three conversions to run his total to 13 kicks out of 14 tries.

A backfiring center pass on a field goal attempt and two 15 yard penalties gave L.S.U. its scoring opportunity late in the game. From the Tiger 22, the center snapped the ball back to the field goal kicker Patton and it sailed over his head to the Tiger 48. Then a 15 yard penalty put the ball on the Rebel 33. Another 15 yarder, on fourth down, put it on the 16. From there, Matthew Burns delivered a pass to Sammy Murphy for the Tiger score with 41 seconds left to play.

The mighty Rebels scored their second shut-out victory of the year, as they defeated Memphis State in a rout 51 to 0 in Crump Stadium in Memphis. The Rebels rolled up 276 net land yards on 48 plays and completed 17 of 25 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns. They limited Memphis State, a neighboring foe, to 137 yards rushing and passing.

The Rebels got off to a slow start in the first quarter and scored only one touchdown on a 67 yard drive with Eagle Day doing most of the running and passing. Muirhead raced for the score from the five yard line. Jimmy (The Toe) Patton added the extra point.

In the second quarter, touchdowns came like raindrops with the Rebels scoring three times. Houston Patton's 24 yard pass to Billy Kinard ate up most of the necessary 32 yards for the second score with Paige Cothren going over from the four. Cothren also scored the next TD to end a 64-yard five play parade, and the first of two John Blalack to John Barber touchdowns, both for 12 yards, was entered shortly before the half.

Jimmy Patton intercepted a pass at the Tiger 33 to set up the fifth touchdown, accepting a seven-yard pitch from Houston Patton for the score. This was the only score in the third period.

Muirhead led a fourth stanza mark of 74 yards and reached goal after nine plays, scoring from the one. This score ran his total to 12 touchdowns and 60 points, where it was to stand. This total was high in the conference until Joe Childress of Auburn broke it on the final game of the season and left Muirhead in second place.

Blalack passed to Barber for their second jackpot, then Jerry Baker fullbacked his way across from the one, after Jimmy (Boom Boom) Powers had collared a State fumble on the eight. Powers ran all the way on this play, but the officials called it back to rid the tackle of his first college score.

Houston Patton furnished seven pass completions in eight attempts. Blalack registered on six of ten and Day on four of seven. Nine receivers got into the act, Barber handling six for 60 yards. A total of 15 backs were called for hall-carrying assignments.

Punt blocking for the season reached four, when Billy Yelverton slapped down a State boot to set up one Rebel scoring movement.

Coach Vaught's Rebels journeyed deep into the heart of Texas for a Tangle with the Houston Cougars and treated their Texas friends to a 26 to 0 licking.

A slight pre-game drizzle turned into a good shower at the game's start and then threatened the rest of the night, but it didn't bother the running of Jimmy Patton. Jimmy gained 123 yards in seven carries and ran an intercepted pass back for 41 yards.

The Rebels put together scoring drives of 99, 45, 51 and 55 yards, respectively, aided by single gains of 74, 37, 43, and 30 yards. Ole Miss was the last team to pin a shutout on Coach Clyde Lee's outfit and that game was played almost two years ago to the day under similar circumstances.

After the Rebels stopped the Cougars cold on the one yard line, they marched 99 yards for their first score in the second quarter. This drive was sparked by the 74 yard jaunt by Jimmy Patton into pay dirt.

Another long gainer set up the second score five minutes later when Houston Patton passed to end Ace Drewry to the Houston 25. Paige Cothren, Red Muirhead, and Jim Patton carried the ball to the one, and Houston Patton drove through the center for the touchdown. Cothren's second placement made the score 14 to 0 at halftime.

After being held scoreless in the third quarter, Jimmy Patton put the clincher on the Texans with his 41 yard interception putting the ball on the Houston 45. It took seven plays from there, including a 12 yard loss to put the ball on the Houston 20. The big play in the drive was a Day to Drewry pass that covered 37 yards. With the ball on the Cougar 20 yard line, Muirhead carried the ball to the nine. Three plays later Day on a keeper slipped by the left end for seven yards and a score. Try for the extra point was no good.

There was still time in the period for an exchange of punts and Bobby Fisher's pass interception. A 43 yard toss from Day to Buddy Harbin put the ball on the Cougar 13. Time was running out, but Day stayed on the ground and on fourth down tried the keeper to the left again and stepped the final five yards. Eagle missed the point afterwards to bring the total to 26 points for the Rebels and nothing for the opponents. The Rebels piled up 426 yards to their opponents 188.

The Rebels fighting to prevent a repeat of last years' game with their arch rivals, Mississippi State, put on a first half scoring barrage to win the Southeastern Conference title and give them a bid to the Sugar Bowl game with the Naval Academy. The final score in the melee was 14 to 0 in favor of the Rebs.

Ole Miss had to win the game to cinch the SEC and to get a chance at the Sugar Bowl. They did just that.

The Rebs grabbed a chunk of sour luck in the first stanza when State took over at the Ole Miss by covering a mis-directed pitchout. Three plays later at the 13, end George Harris intercepted a wayward Maroon flipout and set sail, going to the Ole Miss 39. The big play in the 61 yard movement that followed was a 29 yard pass, Houston Patton to Red Muirhead, to get the ball to the Maroon 29. Jimmy Patton contributed key yardage to eat up the rest of the distance. With a second down beachhead established at the Maroon three, Houston Patton faked to Jimmy Patton on the keep and reached pay dirt by way of right tackle.

In the second quarter the second and final Rebel touchdown was set up by tackle Billy Yelverton, when he fell on quarterback Bobby Collins' fumble at the State 23 and in six plays Ole Miss was across again. The big play was Earl Blair's two yard push at left tackle for a narrow first at the Maroon 13. Day hit the speedy Blair on the run for a 12 yard pass up to the one, and Earl plowed over from that point to score the Rebels' final TD. Cothren and Day kicked the two extra points for the Rebels.

A Day pass and Harris' sensational catch for a 46 yard advance to State's 14 near the end of the half put the Rebs close to a third tally, but a penalty halted that bid. Ole Miss missed a first down at the Maroon five late in the game, to fall shy on another threatening drive.

Ole Miss threw back State charges at its 20, 14, 15 and 25 yard lines in the last half, Rex Boggan, Gene Duhuissan, Harris, Billy Kinard, and Buddy Alliston made telling tackles. Two of the pushes were set up by fumble recoveries. The Maroons now haven't won from the Rebels since 1946. They tied Ole Miss 7-7 a year ago to deny the Rebels the SEC title and a Cotton Bowl bid, but they weren't able to deny the 1954 bunch the championship, nor the Sugar Bowl, nor an even up series record—24-24-3—for the first time since 1911.

Coach Johnny Vaught's 1954 edition of the Ole Miss Rebels were crowned champions of the South-eastern Conference for the second time in his eight years as head coach at the University. The last Rebel squad to accomplish this feat was the 1947 squad.

The Rebels also put together one of the best records ever compiled at the University and finished in sixth place nationally in a poll taken by the Associated Press, United Press, and International News Service. This record and the S.E.C. crown made it possible for the Red and Blue to make their second appearance in the New Orleans Sugar Bowl on New Year's day. Their first appearance was on January, 1953 when they were defeated by the Georgia Tech Yellowjackets 24-7.

In his eight years at the University, Coach Vaught has finished among the top three teams in the conference six years and would have made it three bowl appearances and the like number of S. E. C. championships but for their 7-7 tie with Miss. State in 1953. This game prevented the Rebels from winning the conference and also brushed aside all chances of a Cotton Bowl bid. In these eight years they have a record of 56 wins, 20 losses and five ties. Their S. E. C. results are 32 wins, 15 losses and four ties.

Ole Miss' first undefeated season was in 1952 when they won eight and tied two. The big win was their 21-14 upset of mighty Maryland. But for their lone 6-0 setback at the hands of Arkansas, the 1954 squad would have had their first undefeated, untied season in the school history. They scored 283 points to their opponents 47 for an average of 28.3 points to their opponents 4.7 a game. This defensive total was the best in the nation. They shutout four of their opponents—Villanova, Memphis State, Houston, and Mississippi State.

This season put the Rebels in the national spotlight and they seem to have material enough to continue to be a national power for years to come.

The 1955 Sugar Bowl

Ole Miss 0—Navy 21

On January 1, the SEC Champs from the University of Mississippi played the Midshipmen from the Naval Academy in the annual Sugar Bowl classic. The Rebs went down in defeat by the score of 21 to 0.

Navy received the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards in 17 plays for their first score, after returning the starting kick 19 yards to the 30. Weaver set up the score on a 24 yard gain, and Gattuso went over from the three.

Later in the second quarter, Jimmy Patton saved another TD by intercepting a pass on the Rebel three.

Shortly after the second half was under way, Welsh passed to Weaver in the end zone for the second Navy tally. One of the few bright spots on the part of the Rebels was a 72-yard kick by Eagle Day.

The final scoring in the game came on a 94 yard sustained drive taking 11 plays. Gattuso, the game's most valuable player, carried the pigskin over from the one.

Standouts in the Rebel defense were Gene Dubuissou, Buddy Alliston, and Jimmy Patton.

Basketball in 1954

The campaign that might have been and wasn't, was tumbled about the heads of the Johnny Rebs by a string of six-point misfortunes.

In a season that could also be labeled The Denver Brackeen Story, Ole Miss dropped seven of its 15 reversals by score deficits of from one to six points, all inside the Southeastern Conference.

For lack of one more—just one—marksman of above average caliber, even a crack rebounder with average score potential, the Rebels bogged seven times in games they could just as easily have won.

Or, as Coach B. L. (Country) Graham figured, a more experienced bench would have made the difference in a good many outings.

The opposition was seldom more accurate in field goal firing, but the opposition averaged nearly 15 more shots a game. And many of the defeats lined up were deposited in late action—inside the last three minutes in five of the seven contests under scrutiny.

And there were other nip and tuck decisions to count—the 78-70 loss to Cincinnati, a National Invitational Tournament semi-finalist, and the 88-81 overtime loss to Denver, these in the All-American City Tournament at Owensboro, Ky.; a close bout with Arkansas that was expanded into a 74-64 Porker win the final two minutes, and the 82-68 loss to St. Louis U. that the Billikins won via the free throw line.

The games that were harshest to take in SEC results are lined up with the five games won, as played: Alabama, 59-70; Auburn, 81-85; Georgia Tech, 81-66; Vanderbilt, 77-63; Tulane, 82-83; Louisiana State, 89-69; Kentucky, 66-84; Mississippi State, 66-58; Tennessee, 78-84; Georgia, 80-86; Florida, 72-78; Tulane, 86-80 (triple overtime); Louisiana State, 65-68; Mississippi State 56-60.

The plain, unvarnished truth is that Ole Miss was only a short stride from the second or third-best finish in the Southeastern. Guilty of overall shoddy performing at times, the Rebs also played fabulous ball at times, as witness the showing against Vanderbilt after the Commodores had won a non-conference preview at Nashville, 94-69; the rush past Georgia Tech, twice conquerer of Kentucky's champions, and Louisiana State, and the mid-season defeat of State College at Starkville.

The Rebels' goal of a high-bracket finish hinged after Kentucky's round the finishing games that began with State. That one safely cornered, there was a chance Graham's bunch could go far, but the Vols, Georgia's Bulldogs and the Gators claimed those successive six-point conquests.

The best bet remaining was a 7-7 record to match 1954's injury-ridden outfit, the big test of the three games remaining was Tulane, in New Orleans. And Reb courtmen mastered the Greenies 86-80 in a triple overtime for their first win on the Wave floor since 1952.

But the finish was sour, a pair of below-par rides that both LSU and the Bulldogs derailed. The defeat by State was particularly horrendous, since it took place on the OM court for the first A&M triumph hereabouts since 1943 and 13 straight Reb triumphs.

In order of operations, Ole Miss pushed past Union, East Tennessee State and Southwestern in warmups against good opposition, faced St. Louis and Arkansas in intersectional combat, then closed out the 1954 side of the campaign in the All-American tournament at Owensboro.

Thereafter followed the non-Conference game with Conference member Vanderbilt and the 14 conference games that did count.

The basic three in the lineup were Brackeen, the center, the "shorty" among SEC pivotmen at 6-4; Joe Gibbon, a 6-4 sophomore forward, and Jerry Bynum, a 6-1 junior guard. Bernard Riley, senior guard, usually drew the fourth starting assignment. The forward berth opposite Gibbon was shared by sophomores Wayland Inman, James Miller and Eddie Crawford. Other squadmembers, all rookie guards, were Bill Stokes, a junior college transfer; Jack Barksdale, and Tommy Kortz.

Brackeen was All-America on the Helms Foundation Squad, was unanimous All-Southeastern on the Associated Press, United Press and Nashville Banner (coaches poll) teams, was chosen SEC Player of the Year by the UP and most Valuable Player by the AP. He also was unanimous All-South on the Look and Collier's magazine selections, with All-South representing NCAA District 111, a matter of 11 states and the District of Columbia.

With sophomore growing pains showing on occasion, Gibbon still was one of the conference's better workmen, as Tulane Coach Cliff Wells believes, and Bynum had few peers as an all-court operator, a consistent point procurer and defender.

Riley had several A-1 nights to look back on but was not as consistent a marksman as his junior college record (1952-1953) indicated he would be, and Miller, Inman, Barksdale, Crawford, Stokes and Kortz simply lacked the experience needed for consistent results.

Gibbon trailed Brackeen in the point mart with 373 to Capt. Denver's 599, one of 23 new school records he established. Brackeen's average point total per game of 27.2 was the second highest ever recorded by a Southeastern Conference player, and Gibbon furnished the highest ever scored by a Reb sophomore with 16.2.

Bynum came in with 294 and 12.8 for the campaign. Riley with 172 points and 7.5. Other points were furnished by Inman (76, 3.8); Stokes (40, 2.4); Barksdale (37, 2.5); Miller (37, 2.3); Crawford (22, 2.3); Kortz (1); and team credits (11 points).

Always a marked defensive target, frequently in a shifting man-to-man and zone routine. Brackeen collected the following point totals, in orders of games played: 19, 18, 34, 27, 27, 30, 30, 20, *22, 26, 29, 30, 27, 35, 29, 34, 33, 14, 39, 33, 19, 24 (illness prevented participation in the first Vanderbilt game). A hand injury handicapped Brackeen in two mid-season games and against Louisiana State and Mississippi State at the close of the season.

Game totals for other first-teamers: Gibbon—16, 9, 14, 17, 13, 12, 16, 15, 24, 7, 25, 17, 21, 27, *23, *7, *2, 24, 28, 5, 22, 18, 11 (*Gibbon injured his side in the 23-point game against LSU, playing only briefly in subsequent games against Kentucky and Mississippi State).

Bynum—14, 18, 12, 17, 20, 10, 11, 12, 18, 12, 5, 12, 6, 12, 8, 13, 19, 12, 10, 17, 13, 16, 7; Riley—6, 15, 18, 4, 4, 16, 12, 6, 8, 4, 6, 5, 12, 7, 10, 4, 0, 2, 18, 1, 8, 4, 2.

High scoring games for Inman were Kentucky, 13 points; Mississippi State in the first game, 11; Southwestern, 9, and Tulane (first game) and State College, 6 each. Miller furnished a 10-point game against Denver, a 6-pointer against LSU in the Baton Rouge. Barksdale went for 12 and 7 points against Vanderbilt and Auburn, Stokes for 8, 6 and 6 points vs. Auburn, Tech and Georgia, and Crawford for 8 against 'Bama.

Brackeen finished ninth among the nation's scorers, a lineup ranked on average points per game. The team was ranked nationally in free-throw scoring, tying for 20th with UCLA at 71.0 per cent. It was the best mark registered by a conference team.

Playing in 22 of 23 games, Brackeen left a scoring trail that only one other SEC performer has overmatched. With his 599 points "Brack" became the second-highest regular-season conference scorer in history. The same niche was registered in league action only, Brackeen counting 394 points in 14 engagements.

The 27.2 and 28.1-point averages for full-season and SEC games also were the second-highest attained by a conference player. He became the third conference rep-representative to top 1000 points over a two-season span. And in leading the Southeastern in total and average points in '55, he became the third Johnny Reb to reach this goal—with Graham, his coach, a 1938 All-American, and Burnell Egger, 1940.

Brackeen scored 36.6 per cent of Ole Miss' 1662 points. Despite injuries benching him in four 1953-54 games, he scored 441 points in 20 games, a 22.1-point average.

He was a 1953 junior college All-American with East Central, was named the nation's No. 1 Jaycee player that year. He was All-Southeastern in 1954, was a preseason nominee for All-America in 1955, and attained early-season recognition when he gained a berth on the All-American City all-tournament five.

Most of the 23 new Ole Miss records were established by Cob Jarvis, All-SEC forward in 1953 and 1954. Additionally, he tied a pair established by Graham, who once claimed 35 SEC records.

The Brackeen "record" lineup includes:

SEC PLAYOFFS

The 1954 Ole Miss baseballers under the leadership of Coach Tom Swayze put together one of the best records in the school history to capture the Western Division crown of the SEC. The season closed on a sour note as the Rebels dropped the final game of a three-game play-off with the Georgia Bulldogs to prevent them from being SEC champs.

The Rebs, suffering from a double setback by LSU and two games rained out with their arch rivals from Cow College on the season's final day, journeyed to Athens, Georgia, to meet the Bulldogs for the SEC championship. The Swayzemen dropped the all important first game in a pitching duel 3-2 with six Rebel errors costing them the game. Then the series moved to Ole Miss for the second and possible third games, if needed. The second game ended in a Frank Merrivell finish as big Dave Dickerson, the 205-pound giant from Shanon, strode up to the plate, as a pinch-hitter, with two outs in the ninth with the game deadlocked 5-5 and walloped the ball over the right field fence to even the series at one game apiece. Dave was out of the starting lineup due to a hand injury, but his clutch homer will always be remembered by all who attended the affair. The third and final game brought sadness to the Rebel supporters as the Bulldogs defeated the Rebs 5-3 and won the SEC championship. During the final game Dickerson went into his right field position, but was ordered to be passed in his two plate appearances by Coach Jim Whatley.

At the start the thought was that Ole Miss would have an improved team, a title contender, but that the team lacked the all around experience needed to carry it through to a championship.

However, Coach Tom Swayze's bunch went out front with the first SEC series against Tulane and stayed on top but for a one-week stand in second place.

Swayze first had to find a replacement for outfielder Jack Reed whom he was counting on to play one outfield position. Reed signed a contract with Casey Stengel's New York Yankees. Also he had to find an early replacement for outfielder Cob Jarvis who was out, due to a basketball injury.

He had trouble with his infield when freshman short-stop Pepper Thomas' throwing was affected by a sore arm; first baseman Jimmy Matthews was laid out with an appendectomy and third baseman Al Bullock's throwing went sour when he was hit on the arm by a pitched ball. Both Thomas' and Bullock's hitting fell off considerably as a result of these injuries. Bullock led the league in hitting up until the last of the season and Thomas led in home runs until the final few games. Then after Coach Swayze, an old Southern league lefty pitcher, developed lefty Joe Gibbons into what supposed to be his ace pitcher, he developed arm trouble and was unable to do much pitching. These were some of the many problems that arose while building the team that proved to be the best Rebel squad since 1929, when Pete Shields outfit won 19 of 22 games and won the SEC crown.

In all, Swayze used 24 Rebels during the season, only three of them seniors. There were three juniors competing, 11 sophomores and seven freshmen.

In the opening set with Illinois Wesleyan, Eddie Crawford held down Jarvis' left field berth, Ronnie Pittman, a veteran fly chaser, was in center field, and Matthews started in right. Bill Scott, Bernie Schreiber, Thomas and Bullock made up the infield. Chuck Barrack, a senior, was the catcher.

The situation adjusted into Matthews claiming first base, Dave Dickerson taking over in right field and Jarvis reclaiming left field. When appendicitis sidelined Matthews, Scott and Crawford shared first base with Crawford landing the job. Scott and Tab Turner took turns at short when Thomas was benched with an ailing flipper. Turner also played third and second base. John Lee Gainey, Jr., a freshman; Houston Patton and Paige Cothren, another frosh, were outfield spares. Freshman Buddy Chain was a big help to Barrack behind the plate.

Turning to pitching, Swayze had sophomore letterman Don Goad and Archie White; lefty Cecil Burford, a member of the 1953 squad, and Eagle Day, both sophomores; Edd Tate Parker and sophomore Bob Neblett, members of the 1952 outfit, and freshmen Buddy Wittichen, Gibbon, and Del Farmer.

At season's end after 20 regular season games, won—lost records, and ERA totals were posted as follows: Good, 3-0 and 0.92; Witticher, 2-0 and 0.60; Farmer, 1-0 and 1.80; White, 3-1 and 3.96; Day, 3-2 and 3.49; Parker, 2-2 and 4.65; Gibbon, 0-0 and 2.01; Burford, 0-0 and 4.26.

All SEC honors went out to three of the Rebel baseballers with Schreiber, Thomas, and Jarvis being the ones chosen. The Birmingham News picked Schreiber and Thomas and Jarvis were picked by the Atlanta Journal. Both teams and selections were picked by conference coaches.

The overall record for the Rebels were 14 wins, 5 losses and 1 tie. The SEC record was six wins and three losses and one tie excluding the playoff games with Georgia.

Although the Rebs' team record was not too impressive, with one win and two losses, the individual members earned plenty of glory for themselves.

At the Southern Relays, John Barber blazed across the finish line in the 100-yard dash in 9.3 seconds. The 440 relay team composed of Barber, Muirhead, Yelverton and Blair finished fourth.

The javelin men Jimmy Patton, Bob McCool, and Johnny Williams finished one, two, and three to eke out an Ole Miss win over Memphis State.

At Vandy, the big gun for the Rebs was Yelverton. He scored 18 points by winning the 220, shot and discus, and placing second in the 100-yard dash. Still his effort alone could not win for the Rebs.

The Maroons of Miss. State won handily over the Rebels by a decisive score of 45½ to 90½.

Letter men on Coach Wes Knight's team were Barber, Blair, Yelverton, Muirhead, Truett, high jumper, and Joe Hayes hurdler.

Coach "Wobble" Davidson's net men finished this season with a very impressive record for themselves. The overall record was seven wins and two losses. The tennis team won 38 of 52 singles matches and lost only two of 24 doubles.

Charley Williamson was unbeaten in the singles matches and Bob Leatherman and Tom Elliott, the No. 1 doubles pair, along with Leighton Pettis and Jack Milligan were also undefeated in double matches. Pettis and Milligan posted 8-1 records. Bob Leatherman had a 6-2 chart; Tom Elliott, 5-4; Joe Pless, 3-5.

In the SEC, Leatherman advanced to the semi-finals before faltering. He won this right on two upset victories over L. S. U.'s Pitts and Alabama's Box.

In the state tourney, Leatherman and Elliott won the State crown.

The Rebs finished 8th in the SEC tourney and 2nd in the state tourney.

When the 1954 Ole Miss Golfers finished their season, they were able to post a 6-4 record.

The five members, Bob Travis, Bedford Bradley, Bill Crenshaw, Willis Connell, and Lewis Culley breezed over the 36 hole course in Jackson and turned in even par to win the State Intercollegiate tourney. Lewis Culley of Jackson won for himself the State Golf Championship.

In the Greenwood Invitational Tournament last spring, all of the Rebel goflers plus their coach, Junie Hovius, qualified in the championship flight. Willis Connell tied for Medalist honors with 71.

Bedford Bradley's 67, four beneath Ole Miss par, was the lowest in the meet.

Looking at the statistics at the season's end, Bedford Bradley of Clarksdale was low man for Ole Miss going over par only 14 strokes for 180 holes played. Bob Travis was 18 over in 180 holes, Crenshaw turned in plus 20, Connell plus 43, and Culley was plus 9 for 54 holes played.

Ole Miss Band

Majorettes Dunford, Giles, Mullin, and Ferguson

The Ole Miss Rebel Band, under the direction of Mr. Lyle Babcock and assisted by Mr. Italo Iricci, had a very successful year in the session 1954-55.

Jimmy Autry, signal Drum Major, was assisted by Sondra Beck in leading the Band through many colorful formations at halftime exhibitions. The Rebel Band marched at the Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Arkansas, Tulane and Miss. State games.

One of the more memorable occasions was the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans New Year's day. On the Morning before the game, the Band was part of a television show on the New Orleans channel, and the next day, the halftime show was televised on a coast-to-coast hook-up.

The Band was always on hand at all pep rallies and bon fires. The strains of "Forward Rebels" will always remind us of our Rebel Band and its splendid performances this year.

The Ole Miss Cheerleaders

The Ole Miss Cheerleaders, led by Shirley Wagner, were an important factor in the high spirit of the students as they cheered their Rebels on the gridiron. Their spirit never faltered; even at the dark day at Little Rock, they were always on the job until the end. At New Orleans, the cheerleaders yelled even though some times it was by themselves.

The pep rallies at the Peabody in Memphis, at The St. Charles and Pat O'Brien's in New Orleans, and all of the many rallies on the campus; all of this, we'll remember about '55.

ODK is the national honorary leadership fraternity for men at the University of Mississippi. Invitations for membership are extended twice each year to students and faculty who have been recognized for character, leadership and service in campus life, scholarship, fellowship, and consecration to democratic ideals.

The Alpha Phi Circle was installed at Ole Miss in 1936. The original chapter, founded at Washington and Lee University in 1914, had as its purposes: one, to recognize men who have attained a high standard of efficiency in collegiate activities and to inspire others to strive for conspicuous attainments along similar lines; two, to bring together the most representative men in all phases of collegiate life and thus to create an organization which will help to mould the sentiment of the institution on questions of local and intercollegiate interest; and three, to bring together members of the faculty and student body of the institution on a basis of mutual interest and understanding.

This year ODK has sponsored a series of forums which have been helpful in keeping students informed about current affairs.

BLIND JIM

Never has there been on the Ole Miss campus, a truer Rebel fan than Blind Jim, whose famous words are "I've been following the Rebels for over 50 years and I have never seen them lose a ball game yet."

Every one who comes to Ole Miss knows Jim, and more than likely, if you have ever talked to him he will remember you also. He is known all over the United States for his undying loyalty for the Rebels. When things are not going so good for us out on the field, it is Jim who is the first to give a rousing Rebel yell and raise the Ole Miss spirit again.

It is only fitting and proper to give and dedicate this page in the 1955 OLE Miss to Blind Jim, a true Rebel.

FREDERICK V. HARRIS
Lt. Col., Infantry, P. M. S. & T.

Junior Cadets who attended summer camp in 1954 were a well indoctrinated group of Cadet officers for the Cadet corp this year after six full weeks of training at Fort Benning. The Junior Class went to summer camp with a nine hour day training schedule in mind, but this illusion quickly vanished when training hours began at the unheard of hours of four and five in the morning and ran into the late hours of the night. After adjustment to this unusual routine, the class finished summer camp with a well rounded knowledge of the operational procedures carried on within the various branches of the Army.

The Cadet officers, ably led by Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Jack Johnson, were faced with the task of commanding a battalion that had greatly increased in size, due to compulsory military training going into effect this year. This task was simplified, however, by the overall effort put forth by the Cadets in the battalion to make this years' unit one of the best in the Army ROTC at the University. A result of this was a very successful spring inspection.

The Scabbard and Blade and Pershing Rifles, military honor societies, numbered many active members within the battalion. Members of the Senior Class and Scabbard and Blade formed a percussion drill squad for the first time this year. The squad, part of a platoon composed of Army, Navy, and Air Force Cadets, will represent the University in military drill competitions in the future.

The Rifle Team continued its participation in the Hearst and the Third Army Rifle Matches as well as several shoulder to shoulder and telegraphic matches.

May, 1955, arrived with its graduation and commissioning ceremonies to bring the total number of officers commissioned from the University since 1951 to 167 Second Lieutenants who have served in regular and reserve components of the United States Army.

INTER-SERVICE ROTC TROPHY

Air Force R. O. T. C.

The Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps, originally established at Ole Miss in 1946 as a part of the Army ROTC, has evolved since 1947 into the present Department of Air Science and Tactics. The Department with an Air Force staff of eight members, functions under the supervision of the University and of Headquarters AFROTC, Air University Command.

The course of instruction, consisting of class work and leadership laboratories, offers training which is designed to instruct the Cadet in all aspects of air power and its importance to the security of the nation and to develop in him those attributes essential in the Air Force Officer.

During the first two years the academic work consists of a series of related subjects that can best be described as a course in air-age citizenship. In the final two years, the advanced course, stress is placed upon Air Force procedure and applied air tactics.

All Cadets attend a six weeks summer camp between their Junior and Senior year. These camps are located at various regular Air Force bases. Cadets are afforded the opportunity to participate in orientation flights in late type military aircraft and to observe the application of principles learned in the classroom and leadership laboratory.

CAPTAIN R. L. NOLAN
Professor of Naval Science

Naval R. O. T. C.

The Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps was established at Ole Miss in June, 1946. It is located in McCain Hall, which is named for the late Admiral John S. McCain, an Ole Miss Alumnus.

The purpose of the NROTC is the training of Ole Miss students for future Naval careers. NROTC students are classified as either regular or contract midshipmen. Regular midshipmen are under a navy subsidized scholarship during their four years in college. These students are selected by nationwide competitive examinations. Upon receiving their degrees, physically qualified students receive commissions as Ensigns in the Navy or Second Lieutenants in the Marine Corps. All officers thus commissioned must serve three years on active duty. After this period, those officers desiring to make the Navy a career may request such duty, and if selected, are placed in the same status with all other Naval Officers. If at the end of this period they desire to leave the active service, they are commissioned in the Naval Reserve.

Contract students join the Navy unit in school to which they have already been admitted and are subject to the same physical and mental qualifications as the regular students. During their third and fourth years of college these students are paid an allowance for subsistence and, upon graduation, are given commissions in the Navy or Marine Corps Reserve.

During the three summer periods, regular students make two cruises with the fleet and one combined aviation-amphibious indoctrination cruise. Candidates for the Civil Engineers Corps or the Marine Corps, in lieu of one of their cruises, participate in a specialized summer program. Contract students are given a cruise between their third and fourth years of college. This summer duty usually lasts about eight weeks. These cruises are quite popular with all the students, giving them broader experience during their college careers.

The Panhellenic Council at the University of Mississippi is a member of the National Panhellenic Conference. It is composed of the presidents of each of the sororities and also two other members of each sorority. The officers of the Council are chosen by rotation.

The main purpose of the Panhellenic Council is to promote good will among the different sororities and all Greek letter organizations. Rules are passed to preserve the welfare of the system. Panhellenic sets up rushing rules, limiting the number of pledges that a sorority may have, regulating the bidding system, and cooperating with the University authorities in general.

The Chi Omega's tempted the 1954 Rushees with their invitations to board the cardinal and straw Chi Omega Special and to join the 56th trip made by the Chi O's through the Ole Miss Campus. Harter Williams, chief engineer, had as her fireman Martha Van Bibber. Keeping track of events was Golda Jones and Frances Brumfield, while Kathryn Bailey collected the fares. Norma Lee Herring, conductor, kept the wheels rolling between stops. At these stops, the Chi Omega's picked up Miss Ole Miss, Paula Pemble; cheerleader, Shirley Walne; beauties, Emily Hall, Mary Brown, Paula Pemble, and Shirley Walne; and favorite, Celeste Luckett.

When pledge day came, Emily Hall and Jan Strain called the signals for the apprentices. Side trips were made to Pan Hellenic meetings at which Fanny was Vice President.

Bea Ann Ruff and Margie Ratliff keep the piggy banks filled, while Ann Darden helped Laurin Fields, president of Pan Hellenic, at the meeting. On pink and white clouds dotted with pink carnations, the Phi Mu's fascinated the rushees. They presented to Ann McIntyre their brightest halo that also fitted Margaret Hoppen—recording the heavenly happenings in the big gold book was Julia Waits, while Mary Garrett guarded the earthly treasures. Coming down to earth, Nancy Dickerson flanked Dot Allen, Secretary of Pan Hellenic, to the meetings. Fluffing the pink clouds for rush was Dot Allen. The medals on the clouds stand for first prize in Homecoming decoration; Rebelee Queen, Ann McIntyre; and their four favorites, Dot Allen, Margaret Hoppen, Mary Sidney Johnson, and Ann Shropshire.

Rushing aboard the S. S. Delta Gamma of bronze, pink, and blue decorated with cream colored roses, the D. G.'s enticed the rushees with a gambling party. The ship was piloted by Jane Rayburn with her co-captain Laura Cloud and her pursuers Jean Guyton and Ann Curry. First Mates, Jo Anne Lockard and Pat Stout, tallied the winnings. Bouncers, Sara Ann Smallwood and Sylvia Hunter, took charge of the green horns. Often Sara and Sylvia accompanied Kay Robinson, secretary of Pan Hellenic, to the meetings. Decorated members of the crew are Barbara Marshall, Homecoming alternate; Laura Cloud, cheerleader; and Barbara Marshall and Lavette Gills, majorettes; and three favorites, Laura Cloud, Barbara Marshall, and Kay Robinson.

Friendly clowns greeting them, trapeze artists wooing them, and the ZTA family winning their hearts—this was rush—rush in the ZTA's big new tent. Ring master, Ethel Maloy and her substitute, Betty Bach, greeted each of the rushees as they entered the big top. Registering the acts for the show was Mary Lou Edwards—at the end of the pay line were seated Barbara Davis and Jimmie Nell Crocker—any past history of the big attraction could be obtained from Bobbie Merle Johnson. Without the benefits of elephants, Ethyl Maloy, Betty Bach, and Ann Pyle attend Pan Hellenic meetings. Souvenirs devised by Betty Bach included such as blue and grey streamers and white violets.

This circus is a big attraction with such extras as Shirley Dunford, who is a campus favorite and also a majorette. The ZTA big top was runner up in Homecoming decorations.

Junior Panhellenic

The local Junior Pan-Hellenic Council is a group composed of the pledge presidents and two representatives from each sorority pledge class. This is the second year that the Ole Miss campus had had a Junior Pan-Hellenic Council.

The purpose of this organization is to prepare the pledges for more competent leadership in their future years in sorority life. The organization is controlled and operated in the same way as the Senior Pan-Hellenic Council with the exception of having two advisors; the advisor to the Senior Pan-Hellenic Council, Miss Jackson, and the president of the Senior Pan-Hellenic Council, Laurin Fields.

How they were Selected

Each year, the OLE MISS sponsors the Parade of Favorites. Entering the Parade of favorites are usually five girls from each of the sororities and five girls from the Independents. From these forty girls, the student body selects twenty-five who are to be candidates for beauties. A secret committee of twenty-five students picks five girls whom they think are the most beautiful. The pictures of these girls are sent to some nationally known celebrity to be ranked. This year, Mr. Ray Anthony, the No. 1 band leader in the nation ranked the girls.

The highest honor that an Ole Miss student can receive is to be selected in the Hall of Fame. The six members that are chosen for this honor are selected on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and contribution to the promotion and betterment of Ole Miss.

This honor is done in a manner which is entirely free from politics. A secret committee of eight students and eight faculty members choose twenty-five students to pick the Hall of Fame. All of the selections are done by secret ballot.

Those persons that have been selected for the 1955 Hall of Fame are Jimmy Autry, Ernest Duff, George Dumbaugh, Hunter Gholson, Paula Pemble, and Bill Smallwood.

TRAINING & EXPERIENCE

For a wholesaler to render competent, efficient and well-rounded service to his customers, he must have a complete understanding of and appreciation for the retail druggist's responsibilities as well as his problems. This requires the kind of training and experience that only years in the drug business can afford.

That is why McKesson & Robbins feels particularly well qualified to serve you. As a service drug wholesaler, we are able to furnish you with the neighborhood counsel backed by over 120 years of nationwide experience in the drug business.
